

To Whom It May Concern

I am pleased to provide this reference for MCD Plumbing, who have provided plumbing services to Girrawheen Senior High School over the past years.

Throughout this time, MCD Plumbing has consistently demonstrated a high level of professionalism, technical expertise, and reliability. As a school environment requires prompt and effective responses to maintenance issues, we have found their service to be dependable, efficient, and responsive, often attending to urgent matters with minimal disruption to school operations.

All work has been completed to a high standard, with careful attention to safety requirements and compliance with relevant regulations.

In addition to their technical skills, MCD Plumbing has maintained excellent communication with school staff. They are courteous, trustworthy, and respectful when working in an educational environment, ensuring that students, staff, and visitors are considered at all times.

We have particularly valued their willingness to provide practical advice, identify potential issues before they become significant problems, and deliver cost-effective solutions that meet the school's needs.

Based on our experience, I have no hesitation in recommending MCD. They have been a valued service provider to our school.
